

South Florida Association of Environmental Professionals (SFAEP)

An organization of professionals practicing environmental planning, engineering, science and law in south Florida.

Annual Conference Regulatory Challenges in a Changing Environment November 4, 2011

SFAEP's Annual Conference will have interactive panel discussions with environmental professionals from government and the private sector.

- 8:00 am Registration
- 8:30 am Welcome and Recognitions from SFAEP President
- 8:45 am Keynote Speaker: Terrie Bates, Director, Water Resources Division,
South Florida Water Management District
- 9:30 am Break
- 10:00 am Regulatory Updates and Opportunities for Streamlining
Moderator Matt Davis, PERA, and Invited Panelists
- 12:00 pm Lunch - Restaurants within walking distance.
- 1:15 pm SFAEP Elections and Chapter Business
- 1:30 pm Permit Application Process from the Applicant's Perspective
Moderator Jeff Marcus, C3TS, and Invited Panelists
- 2:45 pm Break
- 3:00 pm Wetland Mitigation Discussion and Updates from the Regulatory Agency Perspective
Moderator David Bogardus, FDOT District Four, and Invited Panelists
- 4:30 pm Closing Comments

Registration is free for SFAEP members and for non-members the costs is $25 for students and $45 for the standard membership.

Location:
Kovens Conference Ctr.,
FIU North Campus
3000 N.E. 151 Street, Miami

