

Environmental Scientist (Full-time position) – CECOS, a growing environmental consulting company, is looking to hire an environmental scientist. Minimum requirements include B.S degree in environmental sciences or relevant area of study and two years experience in wetland delineation, natural resource studies, marine benthic surveys. GIS and GPS knowledge is a plus. Experience in environmental permitting and NEPA preferred. Additional requirements include knowledge of Florida ecology, flora, and fauna. Individual should also have strong written and verbal communication skills. Individual would be involved in conducting field work activities (wetland delineations, seagrass surveys, coral reef monitoring, wildlife studies, environmental monitoring). Company offers competitive pay, great working environment & benefits. Office Location: Deerfield Beach, FL. E-mail resume: to wc@cecosenvironmental.com.